DOROTHY DIX

What Can Youth of 18 Do to Aid Sister, 14?

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I am a boy of 18 but this letter concerns my 14-year-old sister. I found her diary the other day and I read it although I know I shouldn't have. It said that she has been pregnant and for three months. My mother is dead so my sister could not go to her. My father has a severe heart condition and the shock would kill him. I don't know whether to take a chance and tell him or what. I know one thing, she needs help right away. I'm afraid she'll do something foolish. Please help us both—Helpless.

Dear Helpless: There is never a time when one is completely helpless. Don't lose your heads. The problem in which your sister has become enmeshed is not a new one, although it always seems so to the people involved. This has happened before and it has been solved without tragedy. All that really matters is the way you and your sister meet the issue.

Spire your father because of his health. Go to your sister. Tell her you've read her diary. Ask forgiveness for that. It was wrong. Have the courage to talk frankly with her. Know the circumstances before you make a decision. Is the man in the case known? Is he married or unmarried? If he has any decency at all, go to him. If he hasn't, go to your doctor or minister. Speak out. Say that maybe they can help you save your sister's life.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I have a problem. I was going with a boy for about six months. When school started I felt that he didn't care for me as much as he did before. I told him I wouldn't tie him down. He got mad and stopped calling or seeing me. At some of the record hops lately he has come over to be with me. He gave me rides home but a couple of his friends were always with him. I still like him and would like to know if I should forget him or try to get him back. Please help me—Miss B.

Dear Miss B.: When you told the boy you wouldn't tie him down you were giving him a way out of what he evidently feared was becoming an overcautious affair. You'll never get him back by letting him think he can walk out on you. I would give him the distant treatment. The next time he offers you a lift home, thank him but say you've got a date — if it's only with yourself. If he phones, don't be at home even if you have to run out the front door when you hear he's calling. Make a practice of going with other boys. Give a party or two and don't ask him. Once he realizes you're getting along very well without him, you'll soon know if he still has a crush on you. After all this perhaps you won't care so much about him.

Play Saturday Won't Settle SWC Question

By WHITEY SAWYER
Associated Press Staff Writer
Texas Christian, driving toward a share in the Southwest Conference championship, meets Rice at Fort Worth Saturday and Coach Al Martin sounded yesterday as if he didn't think his Frogs were taking the game seriously.

"We just haven't had a big effort like we had last week before the Texas game," Martin said after practice. "We have to pick up if we're going to get past Rice Saturday."

He praised the Rice defense, the "Oklahoma 5-4."

"The last time we saw that defense was in the Arkansas game and we got shut out," Martin recalled.

But Rice, although showing something of its annual November surge, faced injury problems. "We may play without two of our centers this week," Coach Jess Neely said.

Boyd King, who started 15 straight games at center, missed the game at center, Jerry Graves and John Cornett ran without pads.

Southern Methodist and Baylor tuned up for a wide-open offensive game at Waco Saturday.

Coach Bill Meek of SMU had Don Meredith and others throwing and running from spread variations and other attacking alignments.

Baylor also ran a thorough re-

Carpenter Not to Enter Grid Picture

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Bob Carpenter, president of baseball's Philadelphia Phillies, said today he had decided not to enter the new American Football League with a Philadelphia franchise.

Carpenter said that after an extensive study he had decided not to apply for the eighth and final franchise in the league, which expects to start operations next year.

"An important consideration in making the decision, is our feeling that if there were two teams in Philadelphia, an intense competitive situation might develop which would drain the financial resources of both clubs, with the eventual result that neither one could afford to maintain a top notch team in its league," he said in a statement.

"This obviously would be detrimental to the best interests of the football fans of the Philadelphia area."

Historians say that Sylvanus Phillips founded Helena in 1797 at the boat landing where Crowley's Ridge runs into the Mississippi River.

view of its offense, stressing blocking in the line.

Coach John Bridges warned "Our blocking on our running game and our protection for our passing attack both must improve if we are to quit making offensive mistakes and have any chance of moving the ball against SMU. Our defense cannot do the entire job for us, especially against a strong offensive team like SMU."

Arkansas, its conference season over and at least a share of the crown safely tucked away, had bad news for Texas Tech, this week's opponent.

The Razorbacks' mighty half back, Jim Mooley, ran well after recovering from an injured knee.

Texas A&M drilled on fundamentals, individual techniques, defense and passing as the Aggies prepared for the Thanksgiving day game with Texas. Coach Jim Myers said fullback S. J. Halpin will miss the game with a hip injury.

Texas started preparing to stop A&M's multiple offense. Fullback Don Allen appeared ready for full time activity.

Porkers Will Have All Squad Members Back

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP)—With every squad member in action, the Arkansas Razorbacks head today into the stretch of practice for their final opponent of the season, Texas Tech.

Jim Mooley, All-Conference half-back, ran at the No. 1 halfback spot yesterday and appeared to have no trouble with the knee injury which kept him out of the lineup last week.

Ends Les Letsinger and Steve Butler and tackle Jim Hollander also were back at work.

The Hoosier defenses against the Red Raiders' split-T, doubling attack.

Talk of bowl game participation still draws a "no comment" from Coach Frank Broyles. But unofficial reports say the Gator Bowl is the Porker alternate choice if they miss the Cotton Bowl spot.

Official word may come after the Tech game at Little Rock Saturday.

Cold weather brought out the long underwear and leggings in the Razorback camp. Lance Alworth, however, snubbed the long stockings—just as he did in the Southern Methodist game when he churned out 131 yards rushing.

Soviets More Optimistic Over Summit

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Union is taking a far more optimistic line than the United States about the results to be expected from the forthcoming East-West summit conference.

The purpose apparently is to put pressure on the Western powers to make concessions to Moscow to avoid disappointing world public opinion.

But the Soviet propaganda also seems to reflect some official hope in Moscow that the summit meeting actually will succeed in producing agreements on specific issues at the heart of the East-West conflict. There is little if any such hope in Washington at present.

Tass news agency reported from Moscow Wednesday night that Soviet leaders feel East-West summit talks will work out a peace treaty with Germany.

While American officials agree that this is one of the critical problems in East-West relations, they see no prospect for all of agreement on a German peace settlement for many years. Indeed, there is more pessimism than hope here about reaching even a temporary understanding with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev on the future of divided Berlin.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter gave United States aims for summit conference diplomacy in a speech in New York Monday. His definition of what might be accomplished stands in sharp contrast to the line which comes from Moscow.

Herter said it may be possible to lay down some "ground rules" for East-West rivalry which would serve to "temper acute political problems which cannot now be fully solved."

Such rules, he said, could also help to bring the arms race under control.

Herter's statement of aims included no prediction of specific agreements on concrete issues.

Many officials here hold the view that neither the Western powers nor the Soviet Union can be expected to make any basic changes in major policies in the foreseeable future.

This amounts to saying that the Western powers are determined to maintain their position, guarded by their own troops, in West Berlin and the Soviet Union is equally determined to find some way to begin to get the withdrawal of those forces.

High School Selections for Friday

By WICK TEMPLE
Associated Press Staff Writer

The final Friday of the Big Nine Conference football season promises to be just as full of surprises as all the rest. And the big war between El Dorado and Hall for the league championship probably is the most unpredictable game of all.

El Dorado, the defending conference champion, is the favorite to win. But the big war between El Dorado and Hall for the league championship probably is the most unpredictable game of all.

Hall, seen as an also-ran at the beginning of the campaign, overcame an inauspicious beginning and has won eight of its nine games. The only loss was to Texarkana 13-0.

El Dorado, the defending conference champion, is the favorite to win. But the big war between El Dorado and Hall for the league championship probably is the most unpredictable game of all.

Now the two meet at El Dorado, and that means something for the big prize. Hall has one more game left—with Little Rock Central—and if the Warriors beat El Dorado even a loss to Central would not dent their championship.

And this is El Dorado's last league game—a victory would salt away the Wildcats' second straight title.

The prediction: El Dorado 20, Hall 16. Because El Dorado has a bit more depth and a rocky defense, especially inside its own 20. Because Hall beat Fort Smith 21-13 at Little Rock and El Dorado beat the grizzlies 12-0 at Fort Smith in games they all were up for. And mostly because it's bad business to predict ties.

Elsewhere in the Big Nine: Texarkana 7, North Little Rock 6. North Little Rock has weakened more havoc with the Big Nine race than most football addicts would think possible. The Wildcats tied El Dorado and Fort Smith and kicked Central. But the pressure is lifted this time and Texarkana has the home field advantage, and full-back Mike Edwards.

Pine Bluff 26, Hot Springs 7. Beebe and Hot Springs haven't won Central 27, Ellettsville 7-21. Tigers won't be dallying. They face their first losing season in years if they don't win the next two.

In Class AA: Fayetteville 13, Harrison 7. Could go either way. Rogers already has wrapped up the 1AA title.

Wynne 14, Jonesboro 12. Wynne may be looking ahead to the decisive Region 2AA bout with Forrest City and Jonesboro has plenty of fire.

Stuttgart 33, Paragould 6. Benton 20, Morrilton 0. Conway 28, Mabelvale 0. Malvern 19, Camden Fairview 7. Smackover 22, Arkadelphia 6.

Retired GM Head Shoots Hunting Pal

WALPOLE ISLAND, Ont. (AP)—Pale and shaken from grief and shock, Harlow H. Curtice, retired president of General Motors Corp., accompanied the body of the friend he had accidentally shot and killed out of the St. Clair River on Thursday.

"Harlow Anderson was my very dear friend for many years," the tall, dignified industrialist said.

The 66-year-old Curtice was ash-faced and had difficulty mustering words in describing the hunt accident to Ontario provincial police Wednesday.

Harry W. Anderson, 67, a retired GM vice president, was killed by a blast from a 12-gauge shotgun fired by Curtice as they were hunting ducks on Ste. Anne's Island in the St. Clair River, between the United States and Canada.

Provincial police said the accident occurred at 11 a.m. Wednesday. Curtice and Anderson were sitting side-by-side in a duck blind in the marshes. Anderson stood up just as Curtice raised his gun and fired at a flock of ducks passing over. The charge struck Anderson in the right side of the head.

A Chippewa Indian guide was bidding about 25 feet behind the blind.

The guide said Curtice aimed at the lead duck of the flock and as he fired Anderson stood up and stumbled directly into the line of fire.

The hunters had been waiting in vain for several hours for ducks to show up and were almost ready to quit.

Curtice retired as president of GM, Aug. 31, 1950. He is still a GM director. Anderson retired Dec. 31, 1950. He leaves his wife, Veda, 40, and a 4-year-old daughter, Jane Kristan.

Ft. Smith Man Is Beaten to Death
FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—Police investigated today the beating death of 64-year-old William Darr, whose battered body was found in his riverfront shack yesterday.

Virgil Earlewine, 56, Darr's room mate, was held for questioning. A coroner's report said Darr died of brain injuries caused by multiple blows on the head. He also suffered two broken ribs.

Child of 3 Gets to Eat First Food

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Phyllis Culpepper ate the first food slowly. He licked the yolk off the spoon.

It was the first food the 3-year-old had ever eaten. Since birth, his esophagus—the food tube supposed to lead from his throat to his stomach—ended in a blind alley inside his chest. When Phyllis came to Texas Children's Hospital earlier this year he was an invalid. Now he can eat like a normal child and will go home in about two weeks.

Sheriffs to Stay Out of Memphis Case

MEMPHIS (AP)—A sheriffs' association has decided it will not delve into the firing of three deputies accused of intimate relations with women prisoners.

The lawyer for the Tennessee and Mississippi Sheriffs and Peace Officers Assn. announced an investigation several days ago but association officials said yesterday it isn't so.

The officials said M. M. Rosenbush, the attorney made statements that were "misleading, un-with his foster parents. He was born on Dec. 28, 1956, in Kermil, Tex. Doctors realized that Phyllis was not a normal, healthy child. They had to feed him through a hole they made in his stomach.

They had to make a hole into his trachea, or windpipe, so he could breathe. Because he had no rectal opening—the lower colon ended in a dead end—they punctured another hole, lower than the one in his stomach, so wastes could be removed.

Caring for the child proved to be too much of a burden for his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Culpepper of Abilene, Tex., heard of the boy's plight and asked the child's uncle, who had custody of him, if they could take care of Phyllis.

Phyllis came to live with the Culpeppers in May 1957. In April 1958, he was adopted by the couple. The Culpeppers have a son, Stephen, 12.

Recovering from the operation, Phyllis had to be fed intravenously while his tissues healed.

News Briefs

CONCORD, N. H. (AP)—Fifty supporters of Vice President Richard M. Nixon met Wednesday night to organize a New Hampshire drive for Nixon for President.

New Hampshire will hold the first in the nation presidential preference primary March 8.

true and unauthorized."

U. T. Bartholomew, assistant Memphis police chief and West Tennessee vice president of the association, made the "official" statement.

He said he was speaking for President Billie Coleman of Cor-

Coleman signed an authorization for the investigation shortly after the three deputies appeared to Rosenbush for help last Friday. Bartholomew said Coleman was misled by Rosenbush.

"Rosenbush realizes that he overstepped his authority as attorney for the association and misled the president, into signing an authorized call for an investigation when such was not proper under the by-laws," said Bartholomew.

The men were fired for "conduct unbecoming an officer." Bartholomew added, and the association can only investigate where a member is charged with a crime. No charge was filed against the men.

Sheriff M. A. Hinds accused the deputies of being intimate with two women at the Shelby County jail. They contended they were falsely accused by women prisoners for refusing to do favors.

The discharged officers are J. C. Lowry, 26, Kenneth Mattox, 22, and David Climer, 27, all married.

ordered American actress Jayne Mansfield to bed until Monday, saying she was suffering from complete exhaustion. The blonde also has a touch of the flu and a strained ligament in one of her legs.

LONDON (AP)—Sir Winston Churchill was reported improving today from a chest indisposition.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Typhoon Freda has calmed to tropical storm intensity today and was moving in the general direction of Okinawa.

In the Philippines, where Freda raged for two days, the storm left at least 10 persons dead, 22 missing and 7,300 families homeless. First estimates set damage to crops and other property at 2½ million dollars.

NEW YORK (AP)—Earl Browder, former chairman of the American Communist party, has asked federal court to dismiss for lack of prosecution a seven-year-old indictment against him.

The motion will be argued Monday. Browder, 68, and his wife, the late Itissa Irene Browder, were indicted in 1952 on charges of giving false answers on Mrs. Browder's citizenship application.

NEW YORK (AP)—Religious leaders have joined to praise a multimillion-dollar advertising campaign to remind Americans of the value of religion.

The Advertising Council, made up of business interests, is making available more than eight million dollars worth of advertising during November stressing this message: "Find the strength for your life. Worship together this week."

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—The body of Hector Villa-Lobos, South America's most noted composer, lay in state today in the Ministry of Education.

Villa-Lobos died Tuesday at his home here of a kidney ailment. He was born in Rio de Janeiro at a time when the city kept no birth records and listed his age variously at from 72 to 78 years.

ROME (AP)—The plenary commission of the Food and Agriculture Organization today re-elected B. R. Sen of India as director-general of the U. N. organization for another four-year term. Sen has been FAO director general for the past four years.

HALIFAX, N. S. (AP)—Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan left today for Mexico City after an overnight stop. Mikoyan will open a Soviet trade and scientific exhibition in the Mexican capital Saturday.

Incomes for All Americans Are Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—The income of all Americans rose in October for the second straight month despite the steel strike, the Commerce Department said today.

Personal income, a broad measure of purchasing power, increased by one billion dollars to an annual rate of $381,900,000,000. A 200-million-dollar drop in rate of wage and salary payments was more than offset by increases in some other types of income.

Farm income, for example, was up 500 million dollars to an annual rate of $13,500,000,000.

Government benefit payments rose by 330 million dollars, largely because of unemployment benefits paid workers laid off by side effects of the steel strike.

With interest rates rising, interest income also increased by 30 million dollars.

ers Talk outh Idol, Clark

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — House members have come here to question about the television career of Dick Clark.

House subcommittee on Oversight announced its investigation of the subcommittee on practices of television.

subcommittee announced that it would investigate the network's policy to play records.

network issued a statement last night in New York.

The American Broadcasting Co. said it had "examined all evidence available to us" on Clark's various shows and had concluded its investigation with "renewed faith and confidence in Dick Clark's integrity."

Clark, ABC went on, "has neither solicited nor accepted any personal considerations—money or otherwise—to have any performer appear—or to play any record—on any of his programs."

Clark declined all comment. Earlier, it was announced that by ABC to either give up his outside business interests or his television shows.

Clark rose quickly to fame with his nationally televised disc jockey show, "American Bandstand." He is the Saturday night "Dick Clark Show" from New York and he appears on a Sunday panel show.

Clark dropped the business interests: One-third ownership in a

Murder Victim Buried at Murfreesboro

MURFREESBORO, Ark. (AP)—Police today continued a review of information gathered in the shooting death of a diamond mine operator.

No firm leads have been uncovered. Sheriff Freeland Stettart said.

Eliak F. Fagan, 58, was found shot in the head at the nearby Martin Mine last Sunday.

Fagan's 22-caliber pistol was found in his left hand but a coroner's jury ruled the death a murder. Suicide was discounted because Fagan had arthritis in his left hand and the panel said he couldn't have used it fire the weapon.

A New York man, Charles G. Byrd, 27, remained in custody as a material witness in the case. He was not charged and no bond was set. Byrd, who had been hunting for diamonds, was arrested after the body was found in a shack.

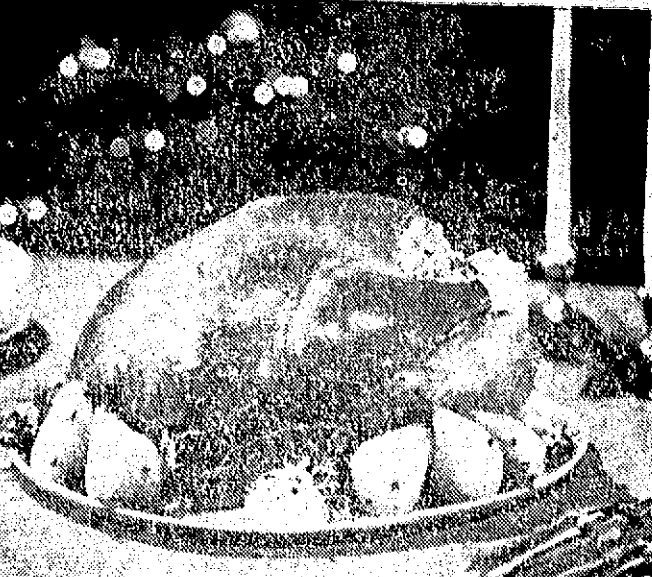

Byrd has refused to take a lie detector test, police said.

Philadelphia record company, and interests in three music publishing companies.

ABC said Clark volunteered to divest himself of these interests in line with a new policy "whereby performers and others who select and play records will be required to divest themselves of all interests in the recording, music publishing and allied fields."

ABC said it is investigating all its disc jockey shows.

Always First For The Holiday Feast

Roast turkey for holiday dinners is traditional. The fragrance of the succulent bird with spices stuffing never fails to put the appetite of friends and loved ones in a special mood. Platter garnish is appropriately simple... spiced whole pears and salad greens complement the turkey in color, texture and flavor.

With today's high quality bird grown especially for flavor, tenderness, juiciness and moistness, even the inexperienced can be assured excellent results if these easy steps are followed. If the turkey purchased carries handling and cooking information on the wrapper or insert sheet, follow those instructions.

To Roast Turkey

Choose a shallow open pan which allows the heat to circulate around the bird, roasting it evenly. A rack at least 1/2-inch high raises the bird off the bottom of the pan, keeping it out of the juices.

1. Have bird completely clean, inside and out. Rinse with cold water. Pat dry. (Turkeys may be roasted unstuffed or stuffed.)
2. Turn on oven at 325°F to preheat.
3. Rub cavity of bird lightly with salt. Omit salting if turkey is stuffed.
4. Fill wishbone area (neck) with stuffing, if used.
5. Fasten neck skin to back with skewer.
6. Stuff cavity lightly, if stuffing is used.
7. Push drumsticks under band of skin at tail; or tie them to tail.
8. Brush skin with fat.
9. Place on rack in roasting pan and place in preheated slow oven. Do not seal, add water, or cover.
10. If desired, baste or brush occasionally with pan drippings, fat or oil - especially any dry areas. When turkey is 3/4 done, cut trussing cord or bridge of skin at drumsticks. Roast until tender. Turkey is done when meat at thickest part of drumstick feels very soft when pressed between protected fingers.

This timetable is a guide to the approximate total time for stuffed turkeys. If turkey is not stuffed, allow 1/2 to 1 hour less total roasting time depending upon size. Always complete roasting in one continuous cooking period.

TIMETABLE — 325°F (slow) Oven
6 to 8 lb	3 1/2 to 4 hours	16 to 20 lb	5 1/2 to 7 hours
8 to 12 lb	4 to 4 1/2 hours	20 to 24 lb	7 to 8 1/2 hours
12 to 16 lb	4 1/2 to 5 1/2 hours

Food Sense—Not Nonsense

A Feat for a Focus

Photographers have been known to hang by their feet to get a startling angle for a picture. Nutrition scientists, too, work from surprising angles to get a picture of what a nutrient does for man. To manage a close-up of vitamin B<sub>6</sub>, for example, they have had to create a B<sub>6</sub> deficiency severe enough to see striking symptoms.

Now, because of work done by Dr. Kenneth Calhoun of the American Institute of Baking in Chicago, researchers, doctors in hospitals and in public health may have a new, sensitive test to bring mild vitamin B<sub>6</sub> shortages into sharp focus.

In his work with animals, Dr. Calhoun first created a B<sub>6</sub> deficiency. The animals began at once to excrete calcium oxalate crystals—the stuff that many kidney stones are made of. Crystals were apparent even with a mild deficiency. But when an adequate amount of vitamin B<sub>6</sub> was added to the diet, calcium oxalate excretion stopped immediately.

These results prompt speculation about the possible relationship between vitamin B<sub>6</sub> and kidney stones in man. Researchers at Harvard University confirm Dr. Calhoun's findings and have extended their studies to man.

Although Nature has been generous with vitamin B<sub>6</sub>, a mild deficiency is possible unless we eat a variety of foods. Among the best sources of vitamin B<sub>6</sub> are whole grain bread and cereal, meat, fish, fresh fruits and vegetables.

Parker Case Cited for New Rights Law

By GEOFFREY GOULD

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Mike Charles Parker, "lunch case" and Mississippi's failure to do anything about it may serve as a precedent for a new federal civil rights law.

Atty. Gen. William P. Rogers said Tuesday the case was a "flagrant and calculated" interference of justice as I know of it," added the Justice Department.

"studying the need for some criminal statute in the civil rights field."

Asked if he meant a federal anti-lynch law, Rogers said "necessarily." Any such law would be bound to penetrate a "lunch case" controversy in Congress.

Parker, a 23-year-old Negro, was accused last spring in Poplarville, Miss., of raping a white woman in a case that drew the woman's 40-year-old daughter present.

Before he could be brought to trial, he was dead, shot by a mob of night riders, and to death and dumped into a river.

Rogers said the FBI investigated the lynching, at a cost of $100,000, in the Poplarville area.

Newspaper at Conway Will Not Be Sold

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A receipt of the Log Cabin Democrat at Conway has been ended and control of the newspaper returned to the Robins family, which has owned it since 1894.

Court documents filed yesterday also showed that Mrs. Frances Sims Robins of Little Rock had transferred her interest in the newspaper to a son and a daughter.

Harry W. Parker of Little Rock, several weeks ago was appointed receiver to handle affairs of the newspaper on petition of Mrs. Frank E. Robins Sr., of Conway, publisher of the newspaper when he died Aug. 12.

Mrs. Robins resigned as administrator and Frank E. Robins III was appointed administrator to succeed her.

Hemingway's 'The Killers' Tonight 8:30

A (huge gun-prods) Slate Shannon (Dane Clark) into walking into a murder set-up, in tonight's gripping "Bold Venture" action at 7 on Channel 6.

Monte Centeno, a pistol-brandishing thug, has done prison time for his partnership with Al Keeler in the theft of $50,000. Free, Centeno retrieves the hidden loot. Fearing Keeler plans to kill him and take all the money rather than split, Centeno hits upon a crafty scheme. He forces Slate Shannon to dress in his clothes and meet Keeler, supposedly to deliver the money, actually to test Keeler's intentions.

Dane Clark, Ray Walton, Diane Baker, Glenda Farrell and Frank McHugh will co-star with Dean Stockwell and Ingemar Johanson in Ernest Hemingway's "The Killers," the premiere "Bulck Electric Playhouse" special on Channel 6 tonight at 8:30.

A Few Things Wrong With U. S. Women

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—What is the basic thing wrong with most American women?

There has been a rash of criticism about the henpecked U. S. male lately, but nobody has been putting the U. S. woman under the microscope for flaws.

Isn't it about time someone performed this neglected public service?

There are certain, traditional objections that are always voiced when the subject of what is wrong with women comes up.

They can be summarized: When you first marry a woman she glows like the morning sun, but in time she kind of gets to look like a rain-stained old copper roof.

A woman talks endlessly but rarely says what she really knows—or really knows what she says, so how can a man ever understand her? A man can understand only things that make sense.

In keeping appointments, a woman always arrives by the calendar instead of the clock.

A woman is supposed to have the right to change her mind, but actually never does—and nobody can make her change it. A woman's mind also never lets go the memory of a fancied wrong—as every husband knows.

A woman never knows the value of a sound dollar or a good man until both are gone from her.

Well, there is no doubt that most of these moss-grown objections to women are still fairly valid, and probably always will be.

But if you polled most American men I doubt these reasons would explain the fact there is a vast and growing grudge among many males against U. S. women.

They are, after all, old sins of the fair sex, and man has had to put up with them throughout history.

What tends to annoy a man most today is that he is being made a sucker of in a new way by a new kind of woman. This is the woman who demands the status of a man while still insisting peremptorily on all the ancient privileges accorded women by the etiquette of romantic chivalry.

The basic thing wrong with American women is they no longer act like women. They look feminine, talk masculine and act bossy.

Maybe the country needs a national "Kick a Woman in the Knee Day" to put the whole question of modern chivalry back on a sounder footing for all.

Her attorney said he was not at liberty to disclose what consideration Mrs. Frances Sims Robins received.

Chancellor Murray C. Reed, who also is probate judge, signed orders yesterday ending the receivership and approving the transfer of Mrs. Frances Sims Robins' interest and the change of control.

WITHOUT SCARS

by INGRAM SEE

After XXVIII could understand Main...
Sara recalled Guaro's loud talk before his audience, a most distasteful recollection. "I wish I'd never heard of an insurance claim."

The air was sultry and humid.
Sara tossed in her bed. At each move, her ankle shot a pain up her leg. She snapped on the bed light. She snapped it off. She was silly to be so nervous and sleepless because of a rubber broker in Brazil. He was nothing to her. Just No. 9,857,524.

She telephoned the Heinis-phone office the next morning.
She had information from Pontes.
If Dulce would come to her house,
she would dictate a report.

"So you finally saw Pontes, Hugh?" Thorpe said. "Well, don't keep Dulce too long. I haven't shaken off this devilish paralysis. I have to go home and lie down a couple of hours during the heat of the day."

Guaro appeared before Dulce.
He dropped his hat on the table by the imbed plant and stood looking at Sara's bandaged ankle. She expected him to lash out at her for jumping out of the car.

"Querida, what happened to your leg? Is it broken? Why didn't you tell me when I talked to you yesterday?"

"It's only a sprain, Guaro, not bad enough to make a fuss over."
"Will you ever forgive me, Sara? I was a fool! Out of my head."

"It is all over, Guaro."
"Then where would you like to go now? I'll carry you to the car."

"Thank you, but I must stay in," she said firmly.
He dropped to the edge of her lounge chair, facing her sideways, stretched an arm across her breasts, clutched the flesh of her arm with his fingers, his face so close it looked like the Cheshire cat with a mustache.

She pushed at him. "Don't, Guaro," she said loud enough to be heard in the kitchen. Then Adalgiza walked loudly into the room. And a tapping came at the front door.

Guaro rose slowly from the edge of her chair. He glanced at the girl whom Adalgiza was admitting and started to turn back to Sara; then he took another look at the girl. "I've seen you before." He looked from her face to her feet and back again; Dulce had a nice figure.

"Ai, I remember," Dulce said.
"The señor came—"
Sara shook her head at Dulce.
"It was at the Para Clube, wasn't it, Dulce? Didn't you tell er than a beautiful frosted ham as the star of your buffet? The season is always highlighted with delectable goodies to tease the appetite and add to the cheer, but few are as easy to make and as delicious to eat! All you need is a canned ham, frosted with cream cheese blended with horseradish. You can garnish it with pimiento trees, bells or wreaths — whatever your imagination suggests!

Dessert for a festive dinner... PEPPERMINT RIBBON LAYERS

Partly menus deserve a really deluxe last course and guests will surely be dazzled by this delicious confection. Almost as easy as it is luscious, these lovely peppermint layers are mix-made with new convenience products:

1 pkg. Pillsbury Chocolate Flavor Boston Cream Pie Mix
1 pkg. Pillsbury Vanilla Flavor Boston Cream Pie Mix
4 tablespoons crushed peppermint stick candy
2 eggs
2 1/2 cups milk
2 tablespoons soft butter
2 tablespoons boiling water

Prepare Pouch 1 from Chocolate and Vanilla Boston Cream Pie Mixes as directed. Before chilling, fold 2 tablespoons of crushed candy into each filling. Cool.

Prepare Pouch 2 from both Boston Cream Pie Mixes as directed.
Bake each in a 9-inch round pan, well greased and floured on the bottom. Split thoroughly cooled cake into two layers each. Arrange layers and filling in this order: chocolate filling; half of vanilla filling; vanilla layer; all of chocolate filling; vanilla layer; remaining vanilla filling; chocolate layer.

Combine Pouch 3 from both Boston Cream Pie Mixes. Add butter and water. Stir until smooth. If necessary, add more water, a few drops at a time. Frost top of cake; allow frosting to run down sides. Sprinkle with crushed peppermint stick candy. Chill at least 1 hour before serving; keep in refrigerator. Serves 12.

me you saw me there with the Señor de Para me night?"
"Sim, señora," she nodded her head rather too violently.

Guaro snapped his fingers. "At that insurance office?" Guaro exploded the words as he turned back to Sara. "I knew you didn't come to see graphs because you liked homogenous old men."

For an instant Sara saw a streak of fear cross his face, like a shaft of shadow across a shaft of sun.

"You little lie!" his words came out hoarse. "That case hasn't been settled yet, has it?"
"Would you like to tell me everything you know?"

"You bet I'll tell you everything!" He took a step closer to Sara, and she saw with relief that Adalgiza was remaining at Dulce to a chair, a respite remaining in the room. The conversation was in her hands today. "I'll tell you, though I don't expect you to write it to your home of three rows. I know you're working with Pontes."

"I'm working with the insurance company, Guaro!"

Rancher to Head State Chamber

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Marvin Mellon, a Jonesboro rancher and former state senator, today was elected president of the Arkansas State Chamber of Commerce.

He succeeds Dave Grundfest of Little Rock, who becomes chairman of the board of directors.

At the same time State Sen. Ellis Fagan of Little Rock, an electric contractor, was re-elected president of the Associated industries of Arkansas, which is affiliated with the state chamber.

Fagan took the occasion to announce that he would seek another term in the Senate next year.

The state chamber chose Robert E. Ritchie of Little Rock, T.
M. Martin of El Dorado and W.

A. Stone of Pine Bluff as vice presidents.

Frank W. Cantrell of Little Rock, an employee of the organization for many years, was named executive vice president, and E. P. Pyatt of Searcy, transporter.

The chamber ended its 31st annual convention with a forum in which members of the Arkansas congressional delegation participated and with a final speech by Sen. J. William Fulbright.

The chamber last night cited C.
Hamilton Moses of Little Rock and Col. T. H. Barton of Little Rock as "great living Americans."

Moses, 71, and Barton, 78, were the first men chosen in what Grundfest said he hoped would be an annual award.

Moses, an attorney and former president and board chairman of Arkansas Power & Light Co., accepted his plaque in person.

Barton, retired board chairman of Lion Oil Co. and until recently

Man Admits Slaying, Another Is Freed

CHICAGO (AP)—Charles Dainton, 17, who had been charged with murdering another youth, was freed from jail Monday after a month's confinement. A prosecutor said someone else had confessed the crime.

Bassten, a Negro, was accused of the robbery-attempt killing of Samuel A. Schwartz, a 16-year-old white youth, on a South Side el platform.

Police had obtained a statement from Bassten admitting the stabbing, a statement he later repudiated.

Prosecutors said an indictment will be sought against James Dim-mick, 18, a Negro, who they said has admitted the stabbing.

Buttermilk Doughnuts

Homemade doughnuts are fine treats for the family and friends. They are slightly warm and sugar-coated with glasses of milk or cups of cocoa. Buttermilk is the liquid ingredient that gives them their tenderness and flavor to these feather-light doughnuts.

Florida Grapefruit Back In Town

Florida is a nice place to go when it starts getting cool, but even when it's hot you can't go south you can enjoy some of Florida's finest offerings in the form of the big juicy grapefruit now being shipped to every section of the country.

Grapefruit halves are a healthful breakfast fruit, naturally rich in vitamin C, and their bracing flavor makes them a delicious, too, as salads or desserts.

Everyone will love grapefruit if you make it easy to get the most out of it. To properly prepare it, cut the fruit in half; remove core. Cut around each section, loosening fruit from membrane. Do not cut around entire outer edge of fruit. This is how to do the four variations shown:

Broiled Grapefruit
Grate grapefruit half with 1 tablespoon sugar and a dash of lemon, lime or orange juice. Broil on broiler rack 3 inches from heat, slowly 15 to 20 minutes or until grapefruit is slightly browned. Turn through. Grapefruit may also be baked in a moderately hot (400°F.) 15 to 20 minutes. Serve hot.

Grapefruit With Grape Garnish
Remove seedless grapes in half. Arrange 7 or 8 halves in center of fruit to represent bunch of grapes as illustrated.

Grapefruit With Cranberry Garnish
Slice of cranberry jelly with small star-shaped cookie cutter. Place cranberry star in center of grapefruit half.

Grapefruit Salad Bowl
Follow directions for preparing grapefruit halves. Remove sections from half; reserve. Cut out membrane remaining in shell. Make "Salad Bowl." Combine grapefruit sections with diced chicken, shrimp or tuna. Moisten with mayonnaise. Serve with salad and garnish with watercress.

Union Will Labor Law

WORK (AP) — Sen. John McClellan (D-Ark.) said last night that he will try to get the new labor law passed by labeling it anti-labor.

It is a great victory for integrity. McClellan, chairman of the Senate Rackets Sub-committee, spoke at the 35th anniversary dinner meeting of the West Side Assn. of Commerce. The organization presented one of its annual awards for public service to the senator for his work with the sub-committee.

"These who opposed labor reform legislation and the Fifth Amendment artists are still active and militant," McClellan declared. "They have plans to nullify the law and bring about its repeal. They will use all kinds of tactics to mislead the public into clamoring for a change in the law that will bring back the days when they could dominate and exploit labor."

Guaranteed Shut-Eye Now
HONOLULU (AP) — Admiral Felix B. Stump, who was commander-in-chief of U.S. forces in the Pacific until he retired last year, says civilian life agrees with him. "People don't call me in the middle of the night any more," he explains.

Beef, Pork Featured in Big Markets

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Beef and pork are being given the big push by supermarkets for pre-holiday eating this week.

Prices are attractive. Beef rib roasts are down as much as 12 cents a pound in the East. Pork chops dropped 4 cents.

Lamb continues in good supply with price reductions ranging from 4 to 6 cents a pound.

Weekend specials generally revolve around beef roasts and the various cuts of veal, pork loins and butts, leg of lamb and chops.

Chipped beef is featured around the country. There are good buys in bacon, pork sausage and canned hams.

Turkeys and the traditional Thanksgiving trimmings started making their appearance with many areas featuring them to attract early buyers.

Housewives are finding their best vegetable buys in medium size yellow onions, Long Island potatoes, and such typical holiday fare as sweet potatoes, brussels sprouts, mushrooms, carrots and pinapples.

There are bargains, too, in beefs, pascal celery cucumbers, endive, escarole broccoli and squash of the near butterfat and Hubbard varieties.

Head lettuce is selling in wide range of quality, condition and price.

For more expensive tastes there are good supplies of artichokes, snap beans, egg plant, peas, peppers, tomatoes green and yellow squash and domestic cabbage.

The flow of Florida citrus to market is increasing. Best buys in fruit are grapefruit oranges, limes, avocados and apples.

Recipients of American Aid Dislike U. S.

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sen. J. William Fulbright said today it didn't matter whether this nation's foreign aid program made friends or only the recipients would stay on our side in the cold war.

"The chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee said that as long as America's allies were willing to use their manpower and other resources to defend the West, 'their loving us is incidental.'"

Fulbright made the statement in reply to a question at a congressional forum of the Arkansas State Chamber of Commerce. The questioner asked if the United States should drain itself financially to keep the friendship of foreign countries.

Replying to another question, Fulbright said he wished President Eisenhower "would make his trips to Russia and the Western countries of Europe really working trips by taking experts out of his government with him instead of just friends."

The senator was asked if he thought Eisenhower should take former President Harry S. Truman to Russia with him.

"If they were friendly it might be all right," Fulbright answered, "but from my past observations I don't think they are very friendly."

Rep. W. F. Norrell said he expected the Senate in 1960 to pass his bill making Arkansas Post a national monument.

Another questioner asked Rep. E. C. Gathings about farm labor. Gathings said one of the "big fights in Congress is the drive by organized labor to try to get paid to local farm labor the same differentials of transportation, insurance and subsistence that is paid to the Mexican laborers brought in during various harvest seasons."

Absent from the forum were Sen. John L. McClellan, who is in New York, and Rep. Wilbur Mills, who is holding tax hearings in Washington.
